UNIVERSITY OF ZARAGOZA
ZARAGOZA: THE CITY

... It is the fifth Spanish city in terms of population (around 700,000 inhabitants)

... It is at a distance of around 300 km of Madrid, Valencia, Barcelona, Bilbao and Toulouse

... It has more than 2,000 years of history (influence of Romans, Muslims and Christians)

... It is close to the beach and the mountains: in less than two hours you can reach the Mediterranean sea or the Pyrenees.

... There are several important multinational companies: General Motors (Opel), Inditex (Zara), Bosch-Siemens, Adidas, Valeo, Boots Healthcare, etc.

... It is within the geographical center of the production of 80% of the Spanish GDP
REASONS TO SPEAK SPANISH

... It is the official language in 21 countries
... It is the mother tongue of around 470 million people
... It is spoken by around 559 million people around the world
... It is the second language used for international communication
... It is the third language in the fields of politics, economy and culture. When president Barack Obama took office, the web of the White House was redesing and information is now offered in two languages English and Spanish http://www.whitehouse.gov/spanish (not in the Trump era)
... It is the second language more use in countries such as USA (20% of the population) and Brazil
... It is a language with a long cultural tradition

... was founded in 1542 (around 475 years).

... among their former students are: Nobel price (Santiago Ramón y Cajal, Medicine, 1906), the Spanish President (Manuel Azaña, 1930’s) and prominent scientist and thinkers (María Moliner, author of one of the most well-known Spanish dictionaries, Luis Oro Guiral, leading researcher in chemistry)

... is a multidisciplinary Higher Educations Institution, with 13 Schools, 3 Schools of Applied Sciences and 10 Research Centers

... has a high research profile: for example, the supercomputer Caesaraugusta, is located since February 2008 at the School of Sciences. It is one of the nodes of the supercomputer Mare Nostrum, that has the higher computer power in Europe and the ninth of the world.

... has around 35,000 students, 3,900 lecturers and professors and 1,800 administrative staff
The School of Economics and Business was born in April 2011 as a result of the merge of the School of Economic and Business Sciences (1974) and the School of Commerce. This School is responsible of all the Degrees and Masters related to the economic and business environment. It has two buildings or campuses “Paraíso” and “Rio Ebro”
... Academic staff

- Lecturers and professors in 2017-18: 330

... It offers 4(5) Bachelor degrees
